

URBAN TECH XCHANGE

Urban Tech Xchange (UTX) is not only Detroit's hub for smart city innovation—it also doubles as a versatile event space in the heart of downtown. Designed to foster collaboration and creativity, UTX offers flexible meeting configurations for up to 48 seated guests and can accommodate strolling events for up to 75 people. Whether you're hosting a strategy session, offsite meeting, or networking event - the modern, tech-forward environment of UTX provides a unique backdrop that blends innovation with community. Located at 1520 Woodward Avenue and surrounded by some of Detroit's most exciting developments, it's a space where ideas and connections thrive.
